The Charles and Harriett Hibberd Bassett Scholarship Application

Recognizing Outstanding Achievement, Good Character, and Well Rounded Development in an Owego Free Academy Graduating Female Senior

Scholarship Background

The Charles and Harriet Hibberd Bassett Scholarship is a $ 500 educational award given in memory of Harriet Hibberd Bassett and her son, Charles Hibberd Bassett. Harriet Hibberd Bassett was raised in Owego and graduated from Owego Free Academy in the Class of 1906. She attended Smith College graduating in 1910. She was a life-long resident of the Village of Owego, very active in her church and civic affairs, and a strong supporter of the community. Her son, Charles Hibberd Bassett was born and raised in Owego and graduated from Owego Free Academy in the Class of 1932. He attended Dartmouth College graduating in 1937 with a Bachelor's of Arts Degree in Economics. Charles went on the Cornell University College of Law graduating with a Law Degree in 1942 and practiced law in Syracuse and Owego for over 55 years. He was a strong believer in the balanced, all round student and supported community programs especially those serving the less fortunate.
