The Colleen & David Dewey-Wright Family Theater Arts Scholarship Application

“ Recognizing Success in Academics and in the Theater Arts: Acting and Stage Craft, Vocal or Instrumental Music for the stage, Set Design, Costume Design or Creation, Set Construction and Painting, Back-Stage Work, Lighting or Audio Work, and a Record of Exemplary Good Character and Kindness to All in an Owego Free Academy Graduating Senior. ”

Scholarship Background

This $ 500 educational award is given in honor of Colleen & David Dewey-Wright, who met because of their involvement in the Theater while attending Morrisville State College. They have continued their theater involvement in the Owego Community through their efforts with the Owego United Methodist Church Mystery Dinner Theater, and at the Owego-Apalachin Middle School and OFA, where their daughters Kendra and Lauren participated in many shows. They have continued their participation in the school's productions working on costuming design and construction, lighting, sound, and set construction work.
