The David P. Beere Family Scholarship Application

Recognizing an Outstanding Graduating Senior Who Has Demonstrated Good Character, A High Concern For Others, an Ethic of Hard Work, and a Desire to Attend A Service Academy, Enter the Military Service or otherwise do Public Service.

Scholarship Background

The David P. Beere Family Scholarship scholarship is a $ 500 educational award which recognizes the Owego history and contributions of the David P. Beere Family, his father and mother, his sisters Rae and Patti, and Dave's long life of achievement, accomplishment and international business work in and support of the military services and international shipping. After leaving Owego Free Academy, David Beere attended Syracuse University graduating with a Bachelor's Degree, the United States Navy Air Corps and finally the Unites States Merchant Marine Academy. Enlisting in the United States Navy, Dave was assigned to the troop ship, General George Goethals, the first large troop ship to anchor at Omaha Beach during World War Two. During World War II, Dave also served, with distinction, as the Port Director of Dubrovnik in the former Yugoslavia on the Adriatic Sea. After honorable discharge from the military, David Beere has risen to the highest career level possible in the field of international shipping. His extraordinary work ethic, high level of energy, tremendous mental capacity, and unusual commitment to his customers and business associates have demonstrated Dave Beere's outstanding leadership in business. Uniformly comments from clients and friends convey that Dave possesses excellent social skills and human relations which allow him to work well with all those he engages. He is a man of great character, a believer in service to country and others, and he treats all those he meets with understanding, compassion, and friendliness.
